

Democracy 2.0 Resources

Finances -- Aid, Scholarships, and Budgets

CalGrants.org

<http://www.calgrants.org/>

Information about the CalGrant – A State Financial Aid grant for any recent high school graduates that meet financial, academic, and eligibility requirements.

California Student Aid Commission

<http://www.csac.ca.gov/>

Learn about CalGrants and other student aid programs, their requirements, and how to apply for them.

California Student Loan Network

<http://www.studentloannetwork.com/student-loans/california/>

The Student Loan Network makes funding your education easy by offering a full suite of online student loan applications. After maximizing your Federal financial aid options, consider a private student loan.

College Scholarship

<http://www.collegescholarships.org/>

Free site that allows browsing of scholarships and grant programs, along with links to program information.

FAFSA Information

<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>

The official FAFSA website, including an online application and information to answer FAQs.

Know How to Go-- California

<http://www.knowhow2goca.org>

California Website provides information about different opportunities for financial aid programs.

Jobs and Career Resources

California Jobs

<http://www.californiajobs.com/>

Local employment site for job seekers and employers.

CalJobs.ca.gov

<http://www.caljobs.ca.gov/>

Run by the Employment Development Department, California's job search engine for all types of jobs in the state.

Idealist.org

<http://www.idealists.org/>

Job search network geared towards non-profit organization work.

USAJOBS.gov

<http://www.usajobs.gov/>

Job search engine and resource for federal jobs.

---

Organizations and Projects*Causes

<http://www.causes.com/>

Causes by Facebook is an online center for organizations to gain recognition and support.

College Summit

<http://www.collegesummit.org/>

College Summit works in partnership with schools, school districts and colleges to develop a sustainable model for raising college enrollment rates community-wide.

Coleman Advocates for Children and Youth

<http://www.colemanadvocates.org/>

Coleman Advocates is working to make San Francisco a city of hope, justice and opportunity for all children and their families. They have a pioneering hybrid model of policy advocacy and grassroots organizing, with the leadership development of young people and parents at the center.

GRID Alternatives

<http://www.gridalternatives.org/>

GRID Alternatives' mission is to empower communities in need by providing renewable energy and energy efficiency services, equipment and training.

Just Good TV

<http://www.justgood.tv/>

Justgood.tv is a Web TV Network showcasing the work and stories of nonprofits, social entrepreneurs and responsible businesses that have impact.

K to College

<http://www.ktocollege.org/>

K to College promotes equal access to higher education by ensuring every student has the resources and tools to learn from kindergarten to college.

National Conference on Citizenship

<http://www.ncoc.net/>

The National Conference on Citizenship (NCoC) is a leader in promoting our nation's civic life. They track, measure and promote civic participation and engagement in partnership with other organizations on a bipartisan, collaborative basis.

Umoja Community

<http://umojacommunity.org/>

Umoja is a statewide community resource that serves at risk, educationally and economically disadvantaged California Community College students, believing that when the voices and histories of students are deliberately and intentionally recognized, students develop self-efficacy and a foundation for academic success.